- (a) within three months after the commencement of this Code; and
- (b) thereafter every two years, during the month of March,

submit to the Inspector-General a written declaration of the leader's income, assets and liabilities, the names, income, assets and liabilities of his or her spouse, child and dependant in the prescribed form, without prejudice to the rights of the leader's spouse, child and dependant to independently own property.

(2) A person shall—

- (a) within three months after becoming a leader; and
- (b) thereafter every two years, during the month of March,

submit to the Inspector-General a written declaration of the leader's income, assets and liabilities, the names, income, assets and liabilities of his or her spouse, child, and dependant in the prescribed form, without prejudice to the rights of the leader's spouse, child and dependant to independently own property.

(3) A leader shall before the expiration of his or her term of office declare his or her income, assets and liabilities under this Code if his or her term of office expires six months after his or her last declaration.

(4) A leader shall in a declaration under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, state how he or she or his or her spouse, child or dependant acquired or incurred, as the case may be, the income, assets and liabilities.

(5) A leader shall ensure that all the information contained in the declaration submitted to the Inspector-General is true and correct to the best of his or her knowledge.

(6) A leader who without justifiable cause submits a declaration to the Inspector-General thirty days after the period prescribed under subsection (1) and (2) of this section commits a breach of this Code.

(7) Where a declaration is made by a leader in respect of himself or herself under this section, where a leader is found not to have declared certain assets and liabilities or if the declaration is found to be false, the leader shall be taken to have breached this Code.

(8) A leader who fails without reasonable cause to submit a declaration under this section commits a breach of this Code.

Power of the Inspector-General to require clarification
etc.

5. (1) The Inspector-General may, by notice in writing, require a leader to account for any matter in connection with a declaration submitted by him or her including—

(a) the omission of anything which in the opinion of the Inspector-General, should have been included in the declaration;

(b) any discrepancies appearing in the declaration, or occurring between the declaration and any other statement or information available to the Inspector General, and the leader shall comply with that requirement.

(2) A leader who, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with the Inspector General's request for clarification within thirty days after receipt of notice, commits a breach of this Code and is liable to—

(a) a warning or caution; or

(b) dismissal; or

(c) vacation of office.

Failure to submit correct
information.

6. A leader who knowingly or recklessly submits a declaration or gives an account of any matter which is false, misleading or insufficient in any material particular, commits a breach of this Code.

Declaration to be public.

7. The contents of a declaration under this Code shall be treated as public information and shall be accessible to members of the public upon application to the Inspector General in the form prescribed under this Code.

PART III—PROHIBITED CONDUCT.

8. (1) A leader shall not put himself or herself in a position in which his or her personal interest conflicts with his or her duties and responsibilities.

Conflict of interest.

(2) Conflict of interest shall be taken to arise where—

(a) a leader deals with a matter in which he or she has personal interest and where he or she is in a position to influence the matter, directly or indirectly, in the course of his or her official duties;

(b) the position the leader holds and the services he or she gives to a person or private body is or are in conflict with his or her official duties.

(3) A leader who contravenes this section commits a breach of this Code.

Disclosure of interest.

9. (1) A leader shall not participate in the deliberations of a public body or board or council or commission or committee, of which he or she is a member at any meeting at which any matter in which he or she has a personal interest is to be discussed.

(2) A leader attending a meeting under subsection (1) of this section shall disclose the nature and extent of his or her personal interest.

(3) A leader who fails to comply with the provisions of this section breaches this Code and shall—

- (a) cease to be a member of that public body, board, council, commission, or committee; and
(b) where any loss is caused, make good the loss.

(4) Before a leader deals with a matter in the course of his or her duties in which he or she has a personal interest, the leader shall inform the person or public body or institution concerned, of the nature and extent of his or her interest.

(5) "Personal interest" in this section in relation to a leader, includes the personal interest of a spouse, child, dependant, agent, or business associate of which the leader has knowledge or would have had knowledge if he or she had exercised due diligence having regard to all the circumstances.

Gifts or benefits in kind.

10. (1) A gift or donation to a leader on any public or ceremonial occasion, or commission to a leader on any transaction shall be treated as a gift or donation or commission to the Government or institution represented by the leader and shall be declared to the Inspector General; but the government or institution shall keep an inventory of any such gifts.

(2) A leader may accept a personal gift or donation from a relative or personal friend to such an extent and on such occasion as is recognised by custom.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a leader may accept a gift if the gift is in the nature of a souvenir or ornament and does not exceed five currency points in value.

(4) Where a leader receives any gifts or other benefits of a value of ten currency points or above from any one source in a twelve consecutive months period, the leader shall disclose that gift, or benefit to the Inspector General.

(5) Where a leader is in doubt as to the need for a declaration or the appropriateness of accepting an offer of a gift, hospitality or other benefit, that leader shall consult the Inspector General for advice.

(6) A leader who fails to comply with the provisions of this section commits a breach of this Code.

11. A leader who directly or indirectly accepts any property or gift which influences or is likely to influence the leader to do a favour to any person commits a breach of this Code.

Prohibited conduct.

12. (1) A leader, a leader's spouse, agent, private company or public company or business enterprise in which the leader, leader's spouse or agent has a controlling interest shall not seek, accept or hold any contract with—

Prohibited contracts.

(a) any government or public body which the leader controls or directly participates in the decision making of its affairs; or

(b) any foreign business organisation where the contract is likely to be in conflict with the public interest.

(2) A leader who contravenes subsection (1) breaches this Code and is liable to—

(a) vacate office; or

(b) be dismissed from the office.

13. (1) A leader shall protect and preserve public property under his or her personal use and shall not use such property or allow its use for any other purpose other than authorised purposes.

Abuse of public property.

(2) In this section “public property” includes any form of real or personal property in which the Government or public body has ownership; a plant, equipment, leasehold, or other property interest as well as any right or other intangible interest that is purchased with public funds, including the services of contractor personnel, office supplies, telephones and other telecommunications equipment and services, mails, automated data, public body records, and vehicles.

(3) A leader who knowingly misuses or allows public property entrusted to his or her care to be misused, abused or left unprotected shall make good the loss occasioned to the property; and the value of the property or damage to the property shall constitute a debt from the leader to the Government or public body concerned.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, a leader who knowingly misuses or allows public property entrusted to his or her care to be misused or abused or left unprotected may, in addition to the sanctions under that subsection be—

(a) warned or cautioned;

(b) demoted; or

(c) dismissed from office.

Misuse of official information.

14. (1) Without derogating from any other written law, a leader shall not directly or indirectly use or allow any person under his or her control to use for furthering any private interest, whether financial or otherwise, any information obtained through or in connection with the office of the leader and not yet made available to the public.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the use of the information referred to in that subsection for the purpose of educational, research, literary, scientific or other similar purpose not prohibited by law.

(3) A leader who contravenes the provisions of this section commits a breach of this Code and is liable to—

(a) be warned or cautioned;

(b) demotion; or

(c) dismissal; or

(d) vacate office.

15. (1) Without derogating from any other written law, a leader shall not—

General prohibited conduct.

- (a) improperly use his or her official position to obtain any property including land, buildings and business interests for himself or herself or his or her spouse, child, relation, friend or agent;
- (b) act to the detriment of Government by refusing or neglecting to settle his or her lawful financial obligations to Government or any public body;
- (c) be an agent of or allow himself or herself to be used to further the interest of any foreign government, organisation or individual in a manner detrimental to the interests of Uganda;
- (d) practice favouritism or nepotism by giving preferential treatment to any person for personal advantage or gain for himself or herself, that of his or her relation, friend or agent, ethnic grouping or area of origin;
- (e) do or direct to be done in abuse of his or her office any act prejudicial to the rights of any person or obtain an unfair advantage over his or her subordinate including abuse of the rights of a member of the opposite sex, through, among other acts, the use of coercion, threat or harassment.

(2) A leader referred to in the Third Schedule to this Code shall not, except with prior written approval of the Inspector General—

- (a) hold office of director or any other office in a foreign business organisation, firm, company or property in any such foreign organisation which is owned and or managed by foreign citizens;

- (b) operate a business as a commission agent; or
(c) accept or be involved in the acceptance of any gift, benefit or advantage from a company or in any such company or firm which is owned and or managed by foreign citizens.

(3) A leader whom the Inspector General denies approval under subsection (2) may appeal against such decision to the High Court.

(4) "Commission agent" under this section means a person employed to sell goods or services delivered to him or her for his or her principal for a commission.

(5) A leader shall not hold any office of profit or emolument likely to compromise his or her office.

(6) Any leader who fails without any reasonable cause to comply with the provisions of this section commits a breach of this Code.

(7) Any leader who directs or concurs in the use of public funds contrary to existing instructions commits a breach of this Code and shall be required to make good the loss even if he or she has ceased to hold that office.

PART IV—POST EMPLOYMENT

Future employment.

16. (1) A leader shall not allow himself or herself to be influenced in the pursuit of his or her official duties and responsibilities by plans or expectations for or offers of future employment.

(2) A leader shall disclose in writing to the Inspector General all offers of future employment that could place the leader in a position of conflict of interest.

(3) A leader who accepts an offer of future employment shall immediately disclose in writing to the Inspector General as well as the authorised person the acceptance of the offer, and in such event, where it is determined by the Inspector-General that the leader is engaged in significant official dealings with the future employer, the leader shall be assigned other duties and responsibilities immediately.

(4) A leader who contravenes the provisions of this section commits a breach of this Code.

17. (1) A former leader shall not, by acting for or on behalf of any person, entity, association, offer advice or participate in a negotiation or case to which the Government or public body is a party and where the former leader acted for or advised the Government or public body.

Upon vacation of office.

(2) A former leader shall not give advice to his or her client using information that is not available to the public concerning programs or policies of Government, public body or department with which he or she had a direct or substantial relationship, during the period of one year immediately prior to ceasing to be a leader.

PART V—PROCEEDINGS OF INSPECTORATE.

18. (1) Any person who alleges that a leader has committed a breach of this Code may lodge a complaint to that effect with the Inspectorate and the Inspectorate shall register the complaint.

Lodging of complaints.

(2) Upon receipt of a complaint under subsection (1) of this section, the Inspectorate shall inquire into, or cause the complaint to be inquired into if satisfied that—

(a) the complaint is not trivial or frivolous and is not made in bad faith; and

(b) the subject matter of the complaint is not outside the jurisdiction of the Inspectorate.

(3) The Inspectorate's decision not to inquire into or cause a complaint to be inquired into, shall not limit the Inspectorate's power to make an inquiry generally into a matter on its own initiative.

(4) A complainant shall be entitled to be informed of any action the Inspectorate intends to take or has taken in respect of his or her complaint, and shall be afforded a hearing.

(5) Any person who knowingly gives false information to the Inspector General under this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment not exceeding two years or a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points or both.

Report of Inspectorate.

19. (1) Upon the completion of an inquiry under section 18, the Inspector General shall communicate his or her decision in his or her report to the authorised person with a copy to the person in breach of this Code and require the authorised person to implement his or her decision.

(2) The Inspector General's report under subsection (1) of this section shall be made public and shall state whether the leader is or is not in breach of this Code in respect of the specific matters inquired into, and in the case of a breach, shall set out-

(a) the nature of the breach which the leader has been found to have committed;

(b) the circumstances of the breach;

(c) a brief summary of the evidence received during the inquiry into the breach; and

(d) the findings and decisions.

(3) In the case of criminal offences, the report may contain a recommendation that criminal proceedings be commenced against the leader or any other person.

20. (1) Upon receipt of a report under section 19 containing a finding of a breach of this Code, the authorised person shall effect the decision of the Inspector General in writing within sixty days after receipt of the report.

(2) The authorised person shall report to the Inspector General in writing within fourteen days after the expiration of the sixty days referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the action taken by him or her.

(3) A person dismissed, removed from office, or convicted for a breach of this Code shall not hold any other public office whether appointive or elective for ~~five~~ <sup>TEN</sup> years effective from the date of dismissal or removal.

See Act 6/2009

21. (1) Where according to any report submitted by the Inspector General under section 19 a leader is proved to have obtained any property through a breach of this Code, the leader shall, subject to any appeal which the leader may make under section 35, forfeit the property by virtue of that report and the property shall be held in trust for the Government or public body by an agent or broker appointed by the Inspector General until it is lawfully disposed of.

Forfeiture and compensation.

(2) The Inspector General may order a leader referred to in subsection (1) to pay by way of compensation to Government or public body such sum as in his or her opinion is just, having regard to the loss suffered by the Government or public body and such order shall be deemed to be a decree under section 25 of the Civil Procedure Act and shall be executed in the manner provided under section 39 of that Act.

Act 17

Special powers of Inspector General.

22. (1) The Inspector General may, during the course of his or her investigations or as a consequence of his or her findings, issue an order placing such restrictions as appear to him or her to be reasonable on the operation of any bank account of a leader or any person being investigated, for the purpose of ensuring payment to Government or public body or prevention of dissipation of any moneys derived from or related to the violation of this Code.

(2) The leader shall be allowed reasonable access to the account frozen under subsection (1) of this section and shall be allowed to withdraw such amount of money, as the Inspector General may deem reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) The Inspector General may, during the course of his or her investigations or as a consequence of his or her findings, issue an order placing such restrictions as appear to him or her to be reasonable, on the disposal of any property of a leader or any person being investigated for the purposes of compensation to the Government or public body or otherwise for the purpose of prevention of dissipation of the properties derived from or related to the violation of this Code.

Powers of
to hear evidence
etc.

23. The Inspectorate has powers and rights vested in the High Court of Uganda as regards attendance, swearing and examination of witnesses, the production and inspection of documents, enforcement of its orders and other matters necessary and proper for due exercise of its powers under this Code and, without limiting the general effect of the foregoing may—

(a) issue summons to any person requiring him or her to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons, to testify to any matter before it and produce any document, book or paper relating to the allegation that he or she has in his or her possession or control;

(b) administer oaths, and examine any person on oath, affirmation or otherwise; and

(c) during the inquiry receive such additional information as it considers relevant and necessary for dealing with the allegations before it.

24. (1) A person who provides information to the Inspectorate—

(a) shall be protected and his or her identity shall not be disclosed; and

(b) may be rewarded for his or her information and paid such amount of money as the Inspector-General may deem fit.

(2) A person who in good faith gives any information to the Inspectorate or assists it in the exercise of its functions shall not be punished in anyway for doing so.

(3) Any person who unlawfully discloses the identity of an informer or victimises any person for giving information to or assisting the Inspectorate commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment not exceeding two years or a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points or both.

25. Subject to the provisions of this Code, the Inspectorate may, after consultation with the Minister and the Attorney General, make rules regulating the procedure under this Code.
